

Hop Head Tours Announces Beer Dinner Tour Dates for Spring 2017

Madison, WI- Hop Head Tours has announced details for its popular Beer Dinner Tours coming up in Spring 2017.

Hop Head Tours will again be bringing together local chefs and brewmasters to pair Madison's finest food and beer, giving foodies and beer aficionados alike a reason to get out of the house on those long, cold Wisconsin weekends. Guests will depart from the Hilton Madison Monona Terrace to a unique brewer guided tasting and brewery tour. After the tour, guests will return to the Capitol Chophouse for a specially prepared three-course dinner, as well as a chef and brewer led discussion on the pairings. Over the course of the four hour tour, guests will have the unique opportunity to interact with the creative minds behind their favorite beer and food.

Upcoming dates include:

Jan 28th, 2017- Guided tour and beer tasting at Ale Asylum and beer paired dinner with Chef Sean Pharr of Capitol Chophouse.

March 18th, 2017- Guided tour and beer tasting with Brewmaster Ashley Kinart of Capital Brewery, and a beer paired dinner with Chef Sean Pharr of Capitol Chophouse.

Seats for both tours are limited and tickets can be purchased for $85 at <http://hopheadtours.com> or by calling 608.338.4265. Hop Head Tours, founded in 2010, offers regularly scheduled local bus and bike tours in Madison and Milwaukee, as well as motorcoach trips throughout the Midwest to explore our fermentation heritage and history.
